Ellen Sprunger

Responsible for 'I believe in you' in the French part of Switzerland, Swiss Olympic Heptathlete and member of the Swiss 100m relay team

Ellen Sprunger is a member of the Swiss 4 x 100 m relay team and a heptathlete. She qualified for the Olympiad in Rio 2016 and had competed at the 2012 Summer Olympics in the women's heptathlon event where she finished in 18th place.

Despite having two operations last summer, she only just failed to qualify for the heptathlon, an achievement that is testimony to her strong will and rigorous training.

Under the Swiss Olympic Athlete Career Programme (ACP), Ellen Sprunger procured an internship through Swiss Olympic Athlete Career Programme, in a crowdfunding platform for sports projects 'I believe in you' where she also takes the role of ambassador.

After the internship, she was taken on in a part-time position at the crowdfunding platform.
